

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

Instructions for authors

The Organising Committee invites prospective authors to submit their abstracts for presentation at the Annual Scientific Meeting of the Australian and New Zealand College of Anaesthetists and Faculty of Pain Medicine on 5-9 May 2023. The meeting will be held in-person in Sydney, supported by virtual elements.

Submissions are invited in the following categories:

- Audit, quality improvement or critical appraisal of a topic
- Case reports
- Original research
- Survey

Authors must ensure information regarding ethics approval and patient consent is included with your abstract submission.

Authors are requested to submit their abstract online in electronic format. The online abstract submission system will allow you to type or copy and paste the abstract information into a specific field. You will not be able to upload your word/PDF formatted abstract into the system. It is not possible to include tables or graphs in your abstract.

All presentations will be in electronic poster (ePoster) format except for those selected for the Gilbert Brown Prize Session, ANZCA Trainee Academic Prize Session, and FPM Dean's Prize and Best Free Paper Session, which will be oral presentations. A number of ePosters will also be selected for moderated ePoster sessions.

Important notes:

- Abstract submissions will close at 11.59pm (AEDT), Sunday 15 January 2023. Please note we are unable to accept any abstract submissions after this date. Please ensure you submit your abstract well in advance of this date to ensure you complete the submission process and have sufficient time to clarify any queries prior to the call for abstracts close.
- Accepted authors will be required to present in person as part of the meeting. *If the meeting format requires a change to a virtual delivery authors will be required to present in a virtual capacity.
- You should ensure that you obtain the relevant consent and approvals before submitting your abstract and ensure your abstract meets all consent and ethics requirements applicable to your institution and location.
- You may be asked for more information during the assessment of your abstract. If you do not have the required consent or approvals, your abstract will not be accepted to the meeting.
- Abstracts will only be considered for ASM prizes if they have not previously been presented orally at a scientific meeting, or published in a journal.

Be connected

ANZCA ASM 2023 5-9 May, Sydney

- Notification of acceptance will be sent to the presenter via email late February 2023, to allow accepted presenters to register prior to close of early-bird registration.
- All presenters must register as a paid delegate before Friday 3 March 2023 (close of early-bird registration) for the meeting. Your abstract will NOT be included in the final program if you fail to register by this date.
- Your abstract should not exceed 3500 characters including spaces (approximately 600 words) including references. A maximum of three (3) references are allowed and are included in the word limit. Tables, graphs, diagrams, symbols, scientific characters or internet links are not accepted.

Abstract categories

- Anaesthesia
- Pain Management
- Obstetric Anaesthesia (Part of the Obstetric Anaesthesia SIG satellite meeting)

Submission guidelines

Number of submissions: Authors may submit more than one paper, with the following exception: Applicants may submit only one abstract for consideration for presentation in the Gilbert Brown Prize session.

Eligibility: Abstracts will only be considered for ASM prizes if they have not been orally presented or published in a journal. Your abstract remains eligible for submission if it has been displayed at a scientific meeting i.e. as an ePoster.

Language: English is the official language of the meeting and should be used in all abstract submissions, publications and presentations.

Acknowledgement of receipt: Upon submission, authors will receive confirmation by email. Please contact the ANZCA ASM team at asm@anzca.edu.au or +61 3 9510 6299 if you do not receive this email.

Changes after submission: You can update your abstract/s at any time through the abstract submission portal prior to the close date, Sunday 15 January 2023 at 11.59pm AEDT. No changes to abstracts will be accepted after this date.

Review and selection: Abstracts will be reviewed by the Abstract Review Committee. Selection will be based upon relevance to theme; originality and interest; clinical and research content, and state of completeness.

Mode of presentation: All presentations will be in ELECTRONIC POSTER (ePoster) FORMAT except prize presentations which will be ORAL presentations. There will be selected moderated poster sessions where authors will need to be available to present their ePoster and answer questions about their work. Full details of e-poster and oral presentation format will be supplied after acceptance is confirmed.

Notification of acceptance: Authors will be notified if their abstract has been accepted in late February 2023, prior to the close of early-bird registration.

Registrations: All presenters are required to register and pay the registration fee by 3 March 2023 (close of early bird registration). Failure to do so will result in exclusion from the final program. Please note: If an author submits an abstract for both the ASM and Obstetric Anaesthesia SIG satellite meeting and it is accepted for both, the author will be required to register as a paid delegate for both meetings.

Be connected

ANZCA ASM 2023 5-9 May, Sydney

Publication: A selection of abstracts presented in ASM prize sessions will be chosen to be submitted for publication in either the Anaesthesia and Intensive Care (A&IC) Journal or the Pain Medicine Journal. Authors MUST include their ethics approval number, Clinical Trials Registry (if applicable) and note if they have a conflict of interest in the body of their abstract if they wish for it to be considered for publication.

All abstracts submitted for publication to the A&IC Journal or Pain Medicine Journal must comply with the journal publication requirements. It is the submitter's responsibility to ensure that their abstract is not published by more than one source. Abstracts cannot be published if they have been previously published in a journal, letter or other online source. You MUST declare if your abstract has been submitted to another conference or meeting and confirm if it has or will be published by another source.

Authors submitting an abstract for an ASM prize session and if accepted wish for their abstract to be considered for publication, must review the publication requirements for the relevant journal prior to submitting their abstract for the ASM. If you are submitting an abstract for the FPM Dean's Prize or FPM Best Free Paper Award, please review the Pain Medicine Journal requirements. Authors submitting for all other ASM prizes are required to review the A&IC Journal requirements.

Abstract format

Word limit: Excluding title, authors (full given first name and family name) and institution, the abstract must not exceed 3500 characters and spaces (approximately 600 words). In MS Word, this count can be determined from the 'tools menu'. Any references must be included in this allowance. If you exceed this limit, the excess text will NOT appear in the published abstract.

Abstract title: The abstract title must be in sentence case [initial Capital followed by lower case], e.g. The online abstract submission. The title should be brief and descriptive.

Author information: Author and co-author names (full given first name and family name), affiliations, cities and countries

Abstract text: All abstracts must be written using the following format:

- Audit, quality improvement or critical appraisal of a topic, original research and survey abstracts should:
Start with an untitled introductory paragraph and be followed by the following sub-headings (in bold)
Methods
Results
Discussion
Acknowledgements
References (maximum of three)
References should be cited within the body of the abstract, using the following format [1], [2, 3]. Superscript references should not be used.

Be connected

ANZCA ASM 2023 5-9 May, Sydney

- A case report abstract should:
Start with an untitled introductory paragraph and be followed by the following sub-headings in bold.

Description

Discussion

Acknowledgements

References (maximum of three)

References should be cited within the body of the abstract, using the following format [1], [2, 3]. Superscript references should not be used.

Authors MUST include their ethics approval number, Clinical Trials Registry (if applicable) and note if they have a conflict of interest in the body of their abstract if they wish for it to be considered for publication.

Please do not type in your abstract within the submission page. Being internet based, each page on the submission site only remains open for 15 minutes before automatically closing. Type your submission on a text document (e.g. MS Word) and copy and paste it into the abstract text field.

ASM Prizes

Please note prospective authors must meet the eligibility criteria for the below prizes by 12 midnight (AEDT) on 1 March 2023.

Gilbert Brown Prize

The Gilbert Brown Prize is a prestigious prize that is awarded annually at the ASM. Eligibility for the prize shall be limited to fellows of the college and the Faculty of Pain Medicine within eight years* of admission to fellowship of ANZCA. In the case of fellows who also hold a specialist qualification from another college or equivalent, eligibility for the prize shall be limited to fellows within eight years* of obtaining their original specialist qualification in anaesthesia or pain medicine. The presentation must be delivered by the candidate who has submitted the abstract. Applicants may submit only one abstract for consideration for presentation in the Gilbert Brown Prize session. The prize takes the form of a medal and will be accompanied by a grant of $A1000 for educational purposes. The Gilbert Brown Prize winner will also receive a certificate recognising the award. Please note only one abstract per author can be entered for consideration for this prize. * Taking into account career disruption.

ANZCA Trainee Research Prize (formerly the Trainee Academic Prize)

The Trainee Research Prize shall be awarded to the trainee or fellow, within one (1) year of award of the Diploma of Fellowship who is judged to make the best contribution at the Trainee Academic Session – Trainee Research Prize - held as part of the Annual Scientific Meeting (ASM). Prospective authors must meet the eligibility criteria by 12 midnight (AEDT) on 1 March in the year of the ASM. This Session will only be open to trainees or fellows to present material related to their research whilst a trainee. The prize will take the form of a medal, and be accompanied by a certificate recognising the achievement. * Taking into account career disruption.

Be connected

ANZCA ASM 2023 5-9 May, Sydney

ANZCA Trainee Quality Improvement Prize

The Scholar Role Subcommittee (SRSC) have introduced this specific prize for a scholar role activity to raise awareness to the importance of quality improvement activities and to recognise exceptional work in either:

- Critical appraisal of topic
- Audit
- Clinical Practice Improvement Project

The Trainee Quality Improvement prize shall be awarded to the trainee or fellow, within one (1) year* of award of the Diploma of Fellowship by 12 midnight (AEDT) on 1 March 2023 who is judged to make the best contribution at the Trainee Academic Session – Trainee Quality Improvement Prize - held as part of the Annual Scientific Meeting (ASM). Prospective authors must meet the eligibility criteria by 12 midnight (AEDT) on 1 March in the year of the ASM. The prize will take the form of a medal and be accompanied by a certificate recognising the achievement. * Taking into account career disruption.

FPM Dean's Prize

The FPM Dean's Prize is awarded for original work presented in the area of pain, judged to be a significant contribution to pain medicine and/or pain research. Eligibility is limited to Faculty of Pain Medicine trainees, or fellows of FPM within eight (8) years* of admission to fellowship of the FPM. Elected fellows must be within eight (8) years* of admission to their original fellowship by 12 midnight (AEDT) on 1 March in the year of the ASM. The prize takes the form of a certificate and a grant of $1,000AUD for educational or research purposes and will be awarded at the FPM Annual General Meeting.

* Taking into account career disruption.

FPM Best Free Paper Award

The Best Free Paper Award is awarded for original work judged to be the best contribution to the free paper session of the Faculty of Pain Medicine. The faculty free paper session is open to all ASM registrants. The prize takes the form of a certificate and a grant of $A500 for educational or research purposes and will be awarded at the FPM Annual General Meeting.

A career disruption involves a prolonged interruption to an applicant's capacity to work, due to:

- Pregnancy.
- Major illness/injury.
- Carer responsibilities.

Interruptions must involve either a continuous absence from work for periods of 28 calendar days or more and/or a long-term partial return to work that has been formalised with the applicant's employer.

Be connected

ANZCA ASM 2023 5-9 May, Sydney

ePoster Prizes

The Organising Committee of the 2023 ASM will select two posters to be awarded a prize under the following categories.

ASM 2023 Open ePoster Prize

The prize of $A500 is to be used for recognised educational purposes. The Open ePoster Prize will be awarded to the author(s) of the poster judged to be the best of those submitted in terms of originality, scientific rigor and quality of presentation.

ASM 2023 ANZCA Trainee ePoster Prize

This prize of $A500 is to be used for a recognised educational purpose and will be awarded to the author(s) of a poster presented at the annual scientific meeting (ASM) by an ANZCA trainee or fellow within one (1) year of award of the Diploma of Fellowship which the Regional Organising Committee considers best of those submitted in terms of originality, scientific rigor and quality of presentation.

Important note:

The submitting author of an abstract will ALWAYS receive email confirmation of receipt of the abstract into the submission site. Please check your junk folder and contact the ANZCA ASM team at asm@anzca.edu.au should your email not have been received.